Why the image of an award winning Indian beer?

Well, we were one of the first in 1989 to introduce Cobra in the UK and can still remember the delivery van from the early days...a battered Citroen 2CV!

It comes as a surprise to many people to discover that wine does compliment Indian food well. However, it is important that the flavours of the wines are fairly full and bold otherwise they can be overpowered.

This new section has been chosen to emphasise the quality, variety and value that is now available from around the world.

Glasses also available in 125ml size.
